Location

Reading is the commercial and administration centre in the Royal County of Berkshire which thrives off its close proximity to London.

Reading has a catchment population of 692,000 ranking it 21 out of the PROMIS centres. Reading's population is predicted to grow by 14.23% by 2027 which is over 40% higher than the national average (Source: Experian). The University of Reading is also a prominent institution within the town enrolling over 17,000 students.

An affluent town, whose economy revolves around the service sector and leading edge technology companies, Reading is located within the M4 corridor, approximately 28 miles south east of Oxford, 4 miles south west of Maidenhead, 18 miles east of Newbury and 35 miles west of Central London.

The town has a direct and frequent train service to London with a fastest journey time of only 28 minutes. Crossrail will open in December 2019 at Reading Station which will provide a direct service to other Central London destinations including Bond Street, Liverpool Street and Canary Wharf, strengthening the towns position as a commercial hub. The town is located within easy access of Heathrow Airport, which is located 24 miles (38 km) to the east.

Reading's main shopping centre is the Oracle which comprises 70,000 sq m (753,480 sq ft) of retail and leisure floor space including a 10 screen Vue Cinema, 18 café bars and restaurants, two department stores and parking for 2300 vehicles.

With more employment, the demand for services and retail will increase and in conjunction with Crossrail, Reading should see strong retail growth.
